NE
DR

NEW ENGLAND DISPUTE RESOLUTION
NEUTRAL PROFILE

Deborah L. Gold-Alexander, Esq.

Sole Practitioner
Lynn and Revere, MA   1990 – Present
General Practice with emphasis on civil litigation, plaintiff work and defense work, personal injury law, real estate law, probate court matters, general litigation matters, summary process litigation, criminal law defense and bankruptcy law. Has been and currently remains a title agent, represents clients for business and real estate matters (residential and commercial), conducts real estate closings and has handled clearing of title matters in Land Court. Resolved hundreds of cases by settlement, mediation or arbitration and/or trial by jury or judge. Qualified to testify as an expert witness in civil procedure in Suffolk Superior Court and Middlesex Superior Court and to serve as Master for hearings in Superior Court.

Associate Attorney
Kamens, Harris - Peabody, MA   1986 – 1990
General practice firm with concentration on civil litigation, criminal defense and real estate law. Independently litigated and tried criminal and civil jury trials in District Court and Superior Court. Conducted real estate closings (purchases and refinances-residential and commercial).

Associate Attorney
Law Office of Charles Goddard - Salem, MA   1985 – 1986
Personal injury and insurance defense firm with concentration on insurance defense civil litigation. Responsible for all phases of pre-trial proceedings including deposition taking, motion practice, settlement conferencing and trial preparation.

EDUCATION:
New England School Law, Boston, MA
Juris Doctor awarded May of 1985
Class rank: top quarter; Dean's list 1983-1985
Student Attorney (SJC Rule 3:03) - Legal Services Clinic

Suffolk University, Boston, MA
B.S. degree awarded 1982, Magna Cum Laude