

NEW ENGLAND DISPUTE RESOLUTION
NEUTRAL PROFILE

John M. DiSanto, Esq.

He was born and raised in Taunton, and graduated from Taunton High School in 1990. From there, he graduated from Bridgewater State College and went on to attend and graduate from Suffolk University Law School and was awarded The Bristol County Bar Association Scholarship Award, and passed the Massachusetts Bar Exam on the first attempt.

From 1994 to 1997, Attorney DiSanto was employed by the Bristol County District Attorney Office as a Law Clerk to the Clerk of Appeals and later served as an Assistant District Attorney from 1997 to 1998 at the New Bedford District Court.

For over the past decade, Attorney DiSanto's practice has focused on personal injury litigation and what's commonly referred to as "insurance defense" litigation for one of the largest insurance companies in Massachusetts. In this capacity, he has defended hundreds of people claiming injuries and other damages due to negligence. He has also represented people injured by the negligence of others in car accidents, slip and fall accidents, animal attacks, etc. As such, he knows "both sides" of personal injury litigation.

In addition, John has successfully handled jury trials at both the District Court and Superior Court level in Massachusetts. He has also successfully represented individuals and corporations at the MA Appeals Court as well. He also has a great deal of experience resolving personal injury cases at arbitration and mediation hearings.
