

NEW ENGLAND DISPUTE RESOLUTION

EQUITABLE MEDIATION & ARBITRATION

Hector E. Zumbado, Esq.

Education: Attorney Zumbado is a graduate from the University of New Hampshire. He received his Master of Business Administration from Suffolk University and a law degree from New England Law Boston.

Bar Admissions: He is licensed to practice law in Massachusetts, New Hampshire and Maine. He is retired in good standing from the Florida Bar.

Litigation Experience: Attorney Zumbado's legal experience includes a multistate trial practice. He has tried numerous jury and bench cases in state and federal Court in MA, NH and ME. He typically handled personal injury cases, workers' compensation claims, and insurance coverage issues, among other things. While his practice has primarily focused in plaintiff's personal injury law, he also has experience representing defendants in personal injury cases. Finally, his litigation experience also includes handling court appointed criminal cases.

Mediation & Arbitration: A significant part of Attorney Zumbado's legal career has been dedicated to serving as a Mediator & Arbitrator. His wide-ranging litigation experience, his unique ability to cut through complex factual and legal issues, and his gentle and engaging demeanor have made Attorney Zumbado an excellent Mediator. He is always impartial and fair. Because of his background and experience, he has a remarkable ability to relate well with the non-legal participants in the mediation process.

Teaching: Attorney Zumbado is an adjunct professor of Trial Practice at New England Law Boston.

Languages: Fluent in English and Spanish.
